WINNING & LOSING

Fall Baseball

The '78 Baseball Warriors, with only six returning sophomores, achieved 11-13 record. One of the highlights of the year was breaking the single game scoring record by putting across 25 runs against Logan.

OUR GUIDES

Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees work together to maintain the facilities and services necessary for the modern junior college. They are dedicated to make the college a part of the community which it serves. The Board of Trustees strive for betterment and unity in the interest of RLC. The board members are: Richard Simpson, Joseph McClure, Everett Thompson, Allen Baker, Richard Herrin, Joe Scrivner, Marvin Scott, and Mark Michalic.

Chairman of Board
Richard Simpson

Student Member
Mark Michalic

President

Through the guidance of our President, Dr. Harry S. Braun, Rend Lake College provides the education and standards demanded by today's society. Dr. Braun provides leadership as he carries out the many responsibilities that are required of the college president.

Secretary: Ruth Ann Clarke

Dean of Instruction

As Dean of Instruction, Mark Kern's major responsibility is to insure a better educational program. He strives to maintain unity among the president, faculty, and students. Mr. Kern also serves as President in the absence of the President.

Secretary: Marvela Minor

Dean of Student Services

Bob Graham, the Dean of Student Services, is busy coordinating and directing the many Personnel Services provided for the students. These services include counseling, registration, financial aid, and testing. Mr. Graham works hard to create pleasant and convenient programs for the students at RLC.

Secretary: Judy Lewis

Assistant Registrar: Sue Upchurch

Business Manager

Mr. Skip Witunski, the Business Manager for Rend Lake College works with the president in preparing the budget of the college. He is also responsible for all financial and business functions. Mr. Witunski also establishes a proper system of accounting, purchasing and budgetary control. Rosemary Carnes is the Assistant Business Manager. She aids Mr. Witunski with many of his financial records.

Top Left: Purchasing Clerk — Marcia Dill
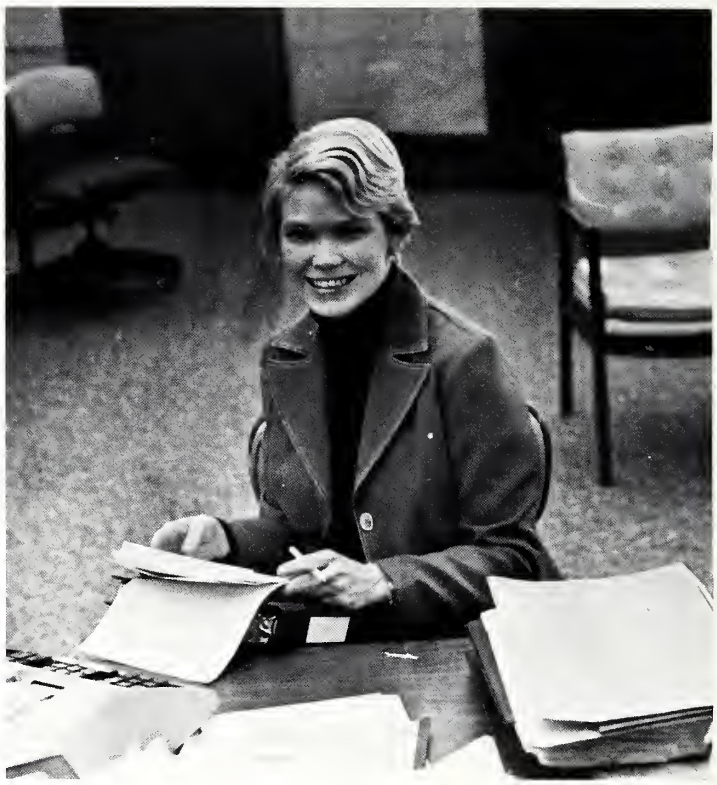
Bottom Right: Receptionist — Debra Malone
Bottom Left: Copy Service — Elliott Bevis

Dean of Community Services

Cheryl Foley, the Dean of Community Services, works hard interpreting community services' role to the people and communities within the College District. Together, she and the Dean of Instruction plan and develop a program of activities to be offered for all off-campus and on-campus evening classes.



Secretary: Diane Anderson

Secretary: Jerri Ruemmler

Dean of Vocational Technical Education

Ardell Kimmel, Dean of Vocational Technical Education, works hard to prepare the One and Five Year Vocational Plan. He is also responsible for coordinating the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act Agreements.

Science and Health

Whether you wish to be a healthy scientist or a scientific health technician, then you will be involved with the Science and Health Department. Science composes biology, botany, physics, physical science, physical geology, ecology, zoology, anatomy and chemistry. Health disciplines include physical education, cosmetology, operating room technology, licensed practical nursing, associate degree nursing, health education, and basic first aid. Since science is so deeply related to the health field then these areas of study are adminstered by the same department. Department Chairman is Edward Kownacki.

Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa is the elite honorary society of Rend Lake College. To qualify for membership a student must achieve at least a 3.5 grade point average for two semesters and be a full-time student for those same two semesters. Late in the spring Phi Theta Kappa will install new members and elect an instructor for the Most Distinguished Education Award. The officers are: President — Cinda Chullen; Secretary-Treasurer — Kim Grubb; and Advisor — Tom Burke.

Engineering Club

The Rend Lake College Engineering and Science Club was formed to promote educational developemnt and the understanding of occupational engineering and sciences. This club has visited a surface coal mine and will visit a General Motors Assembly Plant in St. Louis. The officers are: President — Marshall Ray Porter; Vice-President — Cinda Chullen; Secretary — Charlene Akins; Treasurer — David Owens; Executive Committee — Kevin Knauss, Mark Aktins, and Bill Forrest; Publications — Paul Davis and Jeff Rich; Historian — Carl Wagner; and Sponsor — Mr. Richard Heaton.

ISMEA

The RLC Chapter of the Illinois Student Music Educators Association participated in several activities in the school year which included a Music Department Christmas party in the North Oasis and a cookout/sailing party at Carlyle Lake on Larry Phifer's small yacht. Plans for the spring semester include a cultural excursion to one of St. Louis' fine theatres. The officers are: President — Susan Derry; Vice-President — Brian Summers; Secretary — Shawn McCauley; Treasurer — Karen Rye; and Sponsor — Larry Phifer.

Interior Design Guild

The Interior Design Guild sponsored their second Annual Fall Carnival, and co-sponsored the Christmas Dance by contributing the decorations, design lay-out and the refreshments. The club plans to take a field trip to see a display at S.I.U. Interior Design Department and a trip to the Merchandise Mart in Chicago. The officers are: President — Doris Morganthaler; Vice-President — Coral Laughmiller; Secretary — Crystal Woods; Treasurer — Annette Meister; and Sponsor — Jan Alred.

Phi Beta Lamba

Phi Beta Lamba is commonly known on the RLC campus as the Business Club. An active club, the Phi Beta Lamba has held a car wash, bake sales, sponsored the sweet shop at the Fall Carnival, and held a Mr. & Mrs. Ugly Contest. The club also plans to attend a demonstration of office equipment at Kaskaskia and a state conference in Springfield. The officers are: President — Sandi Mooney; Vice-President — Norma Kellerman; Secretary — Brenda Grewe; Treasurer — Fred Mooney; Historian — Gina Carter; and Sponsors — Janet Miller, Larry Sidwell, and William Younghusband.

SEA

The Student Education Association was created to aid education majors in understanding problems they will encounter in their field. The SEA is affiliated with the Illinois Education Association and the National Education Association. Activities this year were the used book sale, a Fall Carnival booth, and attending state and local conferences. The scholarship winners for 1978-79 are Penny Biggerstaff and Debra Curry.

Illinois State South Regional Vice-President — Penny Biggerstaff at her best.

Officers are: President — Penny Biggerstaff; Vice-President — Martha Abbot; Secretary-Treasurer — Judi Cockrum; and Sponsor — Imogene Book.

Circle K

The Circle-K Club is a junior college organization branch of the Kiwanis Club. It has held bake sales, sold tickets at basketball games and peanuts for crippled children. It also held a Christmas Party for the Alternative School, attended Kiwanis Fall Inspirational Meeting, and individual members have visited area nursing homes. The club plans to develop a play area for the children of registering parents to assist the Mt. Vernon Kiwanis Club with their annual Pancake Day. The officers are: President — Patric Bevis; Vice-President — Teresa Knox; Secretary — Beverly Kondritz; and Sponsor — Mike McClure.

Illinois State Lieutenant Governor South District, Mark Michalic

CHEVY STREET VAN

BASIC

The Brothers and Sisters in Christ was formed to strengthen and minister to students in their Christian walks of life. BASIC plans to have bake sales, a peanut butter and jelly sandwich give-away, and attend conferences in Springfield, Illinois and Louisville, Kentucky. It also distributes information on BASIC. The officers are: President — Marc McCoy; Vice-President — Gayle Bruns; Growth Chairman — Julie Stanford; Out Reach Chairman — Tony McKenzie; and Advisor — Dr. Gilbert Ward.

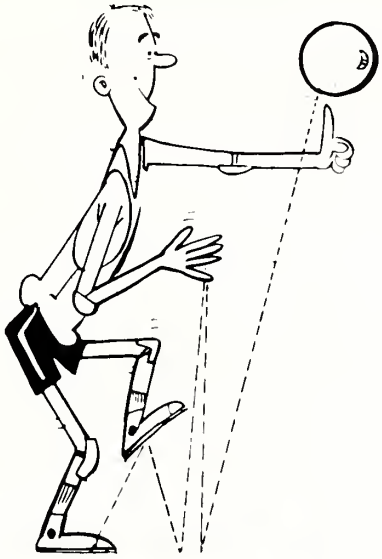
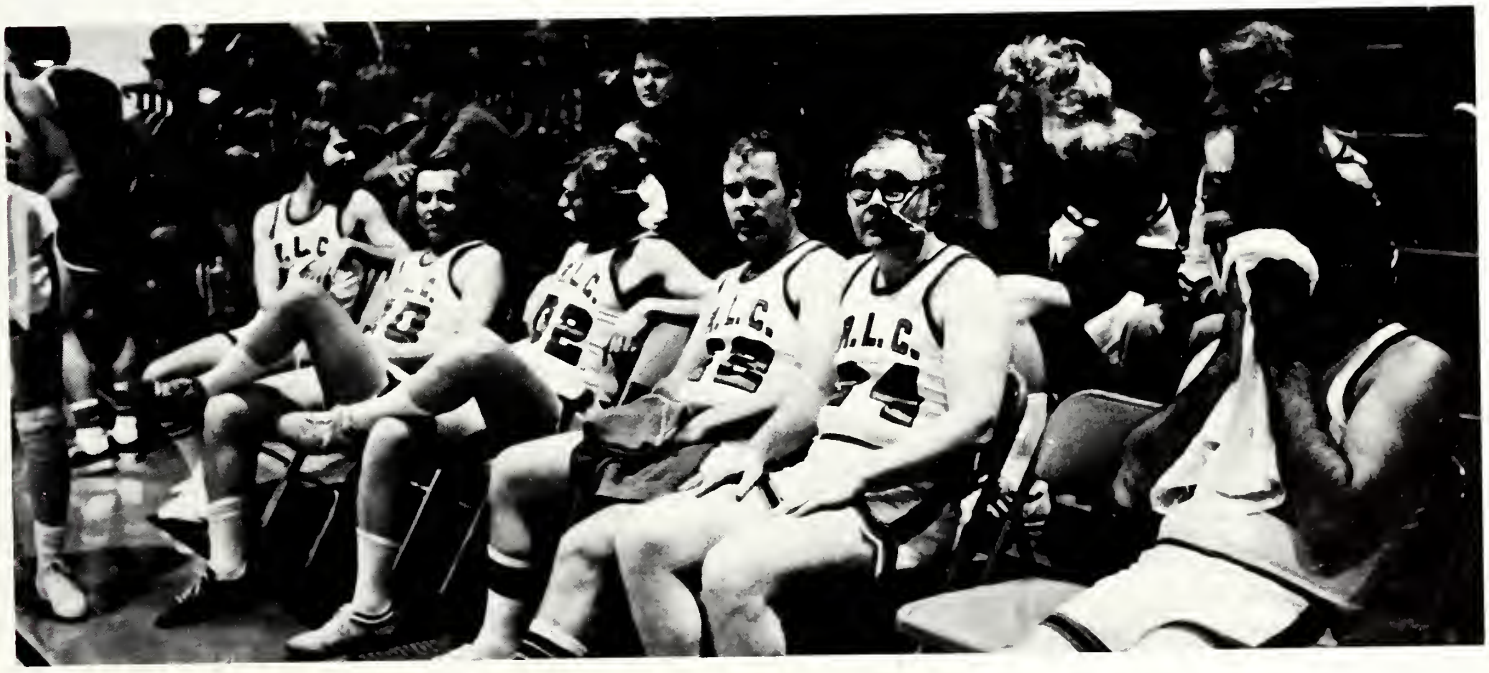
Christmas Dance

On December 15, Rend Lake College held its Christmas Dance. The decorations were provided by the Student Senate and the Interior Design Guild. The dance was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Alumni Game

The Phi Beta Lamba Club sponsored a Mr. & Mrs. Ugly contest in which the students cast their votes for their favorite candidates. The winners were announced at the alumni basketball game. A faculty vs. student game was also held with a dance sponsored by the student Senate held afterwards in the Student Center.





David Hoy

The campus of Rend Lake was honored this fall by a visit from David Hoy. As he talked to a theatre full of students you could gaze around at the faces and see wonder, awe, curiosity and doubt. As he began answering questions more and more hands were raised and the students seemed to enjoy his lecture very much.

Make Up Demonstration

Ms. Kolojewski brought in a professional make-up artist to demonstrate the proper use of make-up and the many different effects you can obtain by using colors to achieve a mood or feeling.

Music Alive

THE JAZZ BAND . . . playing for students, in concert, on tour, jamming in Mexico, doing their thing for thousands of people . . . THE CONCERT BAND . . . recapturing the fun of an old fashioned concert, capturing the energy of today . . . THE SYMPHONY . . . combining the genius of Bach with the beauty of the Mitchell Museum . . . music alive at Rend Lake . . .

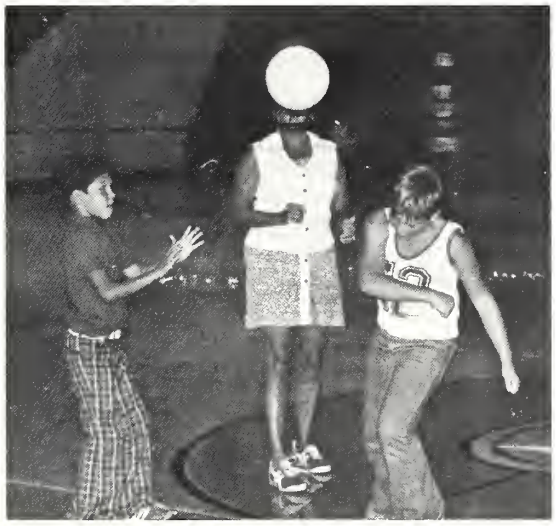
Anniversary Party

Mrs. Helen Kite was honored by faculty and students for her 45th wedding anniversary. The party was held in the North Oasis with many of her friends attending.

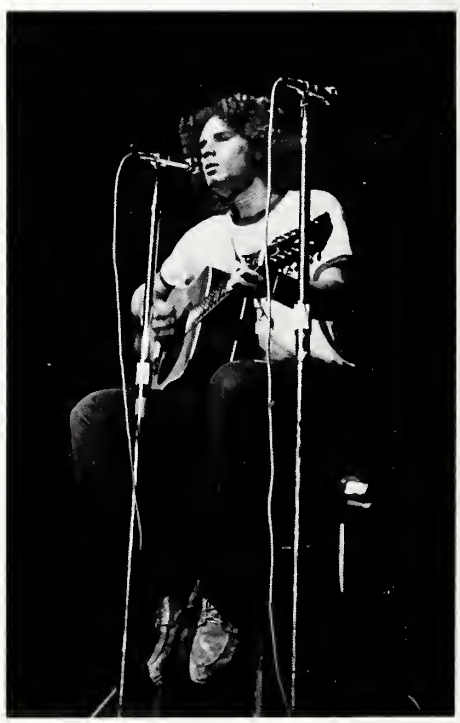
Faculty Picnic

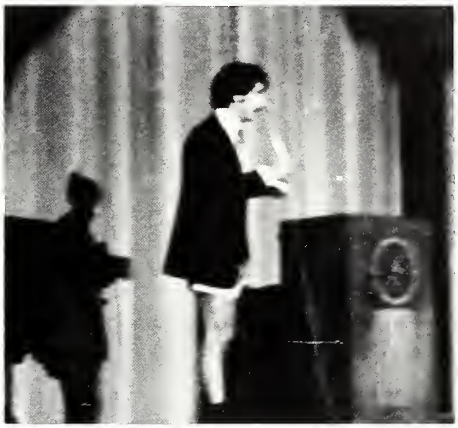
The Faculty Social Committee organized a pot luck, get acquainted picnic at the beginning of the school year for the faculty and their families. They all enjoyed a large variety of good food and later they moved to the gym for games and activities.



Blackouts

The annual Blackouts Production was held this fall for the purpose of raising funds for a scholarship. Not only students but teachers also "got into the act". Blackouts proved to be very exciting and enjoyable for everyone who either attended or participated in the fun.





Carnival

The Halloween Carnival was held again this year on Rend Lake campus. It was arranged by the Interior Design Club. All the clubs on campus were invited to set up a booth and take part in all the fun things that happened during the day.

VIVAL

Guest Speakers

Throughout the school year the campus of Rend Lake College is visited by many different guest speakers from all facets of life. Some of the special things held was a two-day police seminar and a women's basketball coaching seminar.

Special Olympics

Mr. Arnold's Recreational Program Planning Class recently helped promote the part of the Special Olympics held at RLC. The Special Olympics are athletic games quite similar to the other Olympics except they are held for the mentally handicapped ages of eight and older. The Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation sponsors the games nationwide and the SIU Recreation Department is the sponsor for our region.

Honors Day

Each year at Rend Lake College our many outstanding students are honored by a program held especially for them. On this day their outstanding achievements through school work, campus activities and community services are formally recognized and honored.

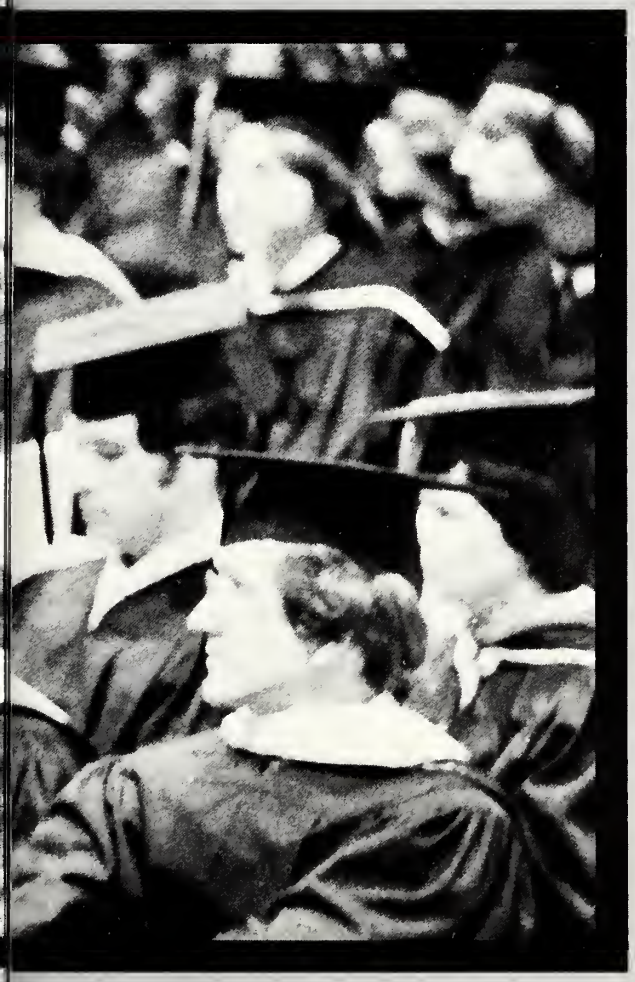
ARRIVED



Once a step is taken
it cannot be retraced
Each man leaves a mark
that can never be erased
The choice is never easy
and soon becomes a chore
But within the house of life
there's yet another door
